

EVALUATION SHEET	EXCELLENT (it checks all the criteria asked)	MEDIUM (it needs improvement in the development of the required steps)	REVIEW (it needs to be reviewed and redone according to the required steps)
Historical background	The relevance and explanation of its origin and its versions of it is deeply and fully explained.	The relevance and explanation of its origin and its versions of it is partially explained	The relevance and explanation of its origin and its versions of it is barely or not explained at all.
Time of the year and location of events	Both time and location are presented by the students.	Either time or location is presented by the students.	Neither time nor location are presented by the students.
Food and beverages	Deep explanations of the origin of its traditional food and beverages and the meaning of why they are consumed on the day of the celebration are given.	Shallow explanations of the origin of its traditional food and beverages and the meaning of why they are consumed on the day of the celebration are given.	No explanations of the origin of its traditional food and beverages and the meaning of why they are consumed on the day of the celebration are given.
Chosen festival vs Carnival	The differences between the national celebration chosen and Carnival are deeply explored, along with its importance.	The differences between the national celebration chosen and Carnival are superficially explored. Its importance is not mentioned.	The differences between the national celebration chosen and Carnival are not explored, nor is its importance mentioned.
Presentation	The presentation was entirely written in English. The grammar mistakes did not affect the understanding of the subject.	The presentation was partially written in English. The grammar mistakes affected the understanding of the subject at a certain level.	The presentation was not written in English.